Auctioneers' Notes: After many years in business, the owners of Child's World Day Care Center have decided to retire. The Ulmers would like to thank everyone for their continued support and patronage through the years. Their building is under a sales contract, but the new owners will not be using any of the contents. Therefore, the entire inventory of toys, books, furniture and equipment will be sold at absolute auction. This is a large collection of items that would great for school, church, daycare or home use. Come see for yourself on June 22nd!
 Thank you! Wayne and Adam
